Your Support Matters

Seven Hills Community Connections supports over 2,500 children and adults served through our Family Support Centers and programs located in Central, North Central, South Valley, North Quabbin and Greater Lowell areas, helping them build friendships, confidence, and a meaningful life in their community. Through social, recreational, arts, and athletic opportunities, participants are building a life of choice and discovery.

The impact of Community Connections is vital to our participants' health and wellness.

“Julia has built numerous friendships and connections within our Worcester community through her involvement in Community Connections activities over the past three years. Her basketball and softball teammates have become part of her close circle, and each season offers an opportunity to celebrate their achievements. Regardless of the medals they earn, Julia remains joyful, discovering purpose and success in life with Seven Hills.”

—Tom Perry, Julia's dad
